Area of Emphasis

Tiffany Arbaugh is senior counsel in Babst Calland's Energy and Natural Resources and Litigation groups. Mrs. Arbaugh has more than twenty years of experience and focuses her practice on representing corporations in a variety of litigation matters with an emphasis in corporate transactions and all facets of energy related litigation including mineral title, real estate, trespass, fraud, title curative, personal injury and toxic torts. Her practice also includes advising clients in customary business operations, litigation avoidance strategies and litigation preparedness.

Background

Mrs. Arbaugh graduated cum laude in 2002 from Mountain State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and accounting. She then earned her juris doctrine in 2005 from the Appalachian School of Law.

Prior to joining Babst Calland, Mrs. Arbaugh spent over a decade working in house for one of the largest oil and gas producers in the United States and several years with a natural gas utility company managing over 15,000 miles of pipeline and thirty storage fields located throughout West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and Michigan. She has spent the past decade in private practice with two nationally recognized law firms specializing in energy, litigation and transactional law.
