

Amanda L. Brosy

Associate

T: 202-853-3465
F: 202-853-3491
abrosy@babstcalland.com

Area of Emphasis

Amanda Brosy is an associate in the Firm's Washington, D.C. office and a member of the Environmental Group. Her practice involves client counseling on compliance with federal and state environmental laws and regulations, resolving liabilities under federal and state remediation programs, and advising clients on significant environmental liability and compliance issues arising in various types of transactions. She also assists with administrative appeals and environmental litigation in state and federal courts. In the past, Ms. Brosy has worked closely with Connecticut's Transfer Act and Remediation Standard Regulations.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Brosy practiced law in New York, where she gained substantial experience counseling municipal clients on compliance with numerous federal, state, and local laws, orders, and regulations. Ms. Brosy provided counsel on land use matters and compliance with the New York State Environmental Quality Review Act in particular.

Background

Ms. Brosy earned her J.D. magna cum laude from Quinnipiac University School of Law in 2011, where she was a Publications Editor for the Quinnipiac Law Review, and her B.A., cum laude, in Government and Law from Lafayette College in 2008.

Memberships and Affiliations

Ms. Brosy is admitted to the District of Columbia, New York and Connecticut Bars. She was selected to the 2021-2022 New York Metro Rising Stars lists (Thomson Reuters).