

TITLE ATTORNEY

Babst, Calland, Clements and Zomnir, P.C. is seeking an experienced Title Attorney in either our Pittsburgh, PA or Charleston, WV office; but a remote position can be considered for the right candidate.

The Position:

The preferred candidate must be licensed to practice law in at least one, but preferably more, of the Appalachian states of West Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Ohio and have at least 2-4 years of experience examining title, drafting title opinions, and performing related curative work, preferably in the energy and natural resources industry.

Candidates must have a strong work ethic and analytical, research, writing, and speaking skills. The ideal candidate will have the ability to work in a fast-paced, team environment with a client-focused approach.

In addition, a qualified candidate may be called upon to assist in drafting or editing deeds, leases, assignments, agreements, and other forms of contracts relating to real estate. Interested candidates should have a strong desire to learn and grow within the Firm, as well as explore new opportunities and most importantly the ability to maintain strict client and Firm confidentiality. No existing client relationships are required.

Babst Calland is a highly collaborative firm with a large, established client base. In addition to a competitive salary and bonus plan, benefits include medical, dental, optical, and life insurance, 401(k), phone allowance, and paid time off.

If interested, please submit your resume and cover letter to careers@babstcalland.com.
